Targus Crave Slipcase for iPad™

PRODUCT CODE: TSS177EU

Product Description:

The Targus Crave Slipcase features a soft interior lining designed specifically to protect the iPad from dust and scratches. Inspired by outdoor apparel, the Crave slipcase is made of durable weather-resistant material which has been abrasion tested for durability and features a stainguard coating to protect its surface. The zippered side pocket provides storage for a power adapter or additional accessories. For added convenience the case features two carry handles that easily tuck away when not in use. With just enough room to carry your iPad and a few essentials, this multifunctional slipcase can be used alone or inside another case for added protection.

Product Features:

- Compatibility – Designed to protect the Apple® iPad™
- Functionality – Zippered side compartment to store a power adapter or other accessory items; Carry handles conveniently tuck away when not in use
- Ergonomic – Constructed of durable, water and stain-resistant nylon material with scratch-resistant microfiber interior
